

Welcome to the internet platform of the network "digital history" at the Saarland University.

Here you can find informations concerning the research topics of the network, recent and completed projects, announcements, events, but also further materials, links and literature.